NISHTHA GUPTA

RISHIKA PUROHIT

The Dipsites

They have a Personality that is charming as well as noticeable. They are not indifferent but involved in everything, be it academics, extra curricular activities or the changing moods of nature around. They grow with a scientific temper, are a part of the global techno culture and yet can enjoy and appreciate the poetry in the rhythm of everyday life. They understand the demands of the changing social order in an increasingly materialistic world, but do not compromise with rich human values of our motherland. They continue to gain in knowledge and have the will to steer their life whether at home or abroad with equal poise. They cherish their sense of freedom, can balance between their thought and can live their life by choice. They are capable of attaining a significant place in society and being perfect example of cultured citizens.
