Laying the foundation of excellence

Message from the Principal

Dear Readers,

As we release this session's first edition of the E-Buzz, it is my pleasure to acknowledge and celebrate our students' achievements and other significant events.

A school is always a 'world in miniature', where one receives training for life, through effective, meaningful and joyful learning. It is here that we teach important lessons of life - to accept challenges, face competition, defeat and failure and rejoice at victory and triumph. While academic excellence is our major thrust, DPS Kolar is also devoted to prepare its students for life and groom them to become positive contributors of tomorrow.

Growing from strength to strength, since its inception, the school's greatest accomplishment has been to see its students ride the road of much deserved success, and to see them exercise profound wisdom in their actions, maintaining clarity of thought, and a deep-seated urge to change the world.

I would like to put on record my heartfelt gratitude for the wishes, trust and support that we receive from all our stakeholders.

Wishing you a happy and fruitful session ahead. Happy reading!

STUDENTS' REFLECTIONS

पेड़ की आत्मकथा

पहचानते हो न मुझे? मेरे बिना आपका पेट नहीं भर सकता है। अब तो आप पहचान ही गए होंगे: मैं कौन हूँ? मैं पेड़ हूँ। आज मैं आपको अपनी कहानी बताने जा रहा हूँ। आज से करीब करोड़ों साल पहले मेरा जन्म पृथ्वी पर हुआ था। पेड़ का अर्थ वृक्षा होता है। पेड़ आप लोगों को फल, फूल और सब्जियां देते हैं। कई भाषाओं में पेड़ को अलग-अलग नाम से जानते हैं। गुजरात में झाड़, मराठी में राये आदि। चलिए, थोड़ा आगे चलते हैं। बरगद को पेड़ भारत का राष्ट्रीय वृक्ष है। इसे 'बर', 'बड़', 'बट' या 'वट' भी कहते हैं। बातें तो और भी बहुत सर है, पर फिर कथी। अभी इतना ही।

धैर्य रख पार्थ

धैर्य रख पार्थ तुझे आगे बढ़ते जाना है।
आर्येगी कठिनाईयाँ कई, तुझे उन सब को हराना हैं।

धैर्य रख पार्थ तुझे इतिहास रचाना है।
आंधी, तूफान सब तेरी बाधाएँ बनेगी,
तुझे आगे बढ़ते जाना हैं।

अपनों से ही लड़ना है और अपनों में ही मिल जाना हैं।
धैर्य रख पार्थ तुझे आगे बढ़ते जाना है।
धैर्य रख पार्थ तुझे कर्म किये जाना हैं।
बिना चिंता किए फल की तुझे अपना कर्तव्य निभाना हैं।
धैर्य रख पार्थ तुझे आगे बढ़ते जाना है।

WONDROUS NATURE

In the heart of nature's grace
Lies an astonishing, magical place.
From dawn's glow to twinkling twilight
Forests' deep whispering ancient tales
Mountains standing like aged kings
Flowers blooming in vibrant hues
Birds that soar and creatures small
Nature's wonders- one and all.
Guard this treasure, hold it dear
For its wonders bring us cheer.
Respect and care for all of these Nature's gifts for you and me.

THE LAST VACATION

*It was a memorable trip to the city of dreams
I was amazed to see the beauty of the place it seems*

Thrilled to experience the ride on the double decker bus, local train and sea realms

Stars were twinkling in my eyes,

My face broad with smiles,

Watching the sea stretch for miles.....

Still remember the adventure of my parents running to catch the local train on time

Then I imagined the life of my parents and how they managed their time.

The taste of sea food is still in my mouth

I can't forget the Taj Hotel in the south

Loved reading the lines on Gateway of India and amazed to know the history

Images of Juhu Beach, BSE, my first home, are alluring and like a mystery.

The vacation may be over

But the memories of my last vacation will never fade away.

THE REBEL BY ALBERT CAMUS - A REVIEW

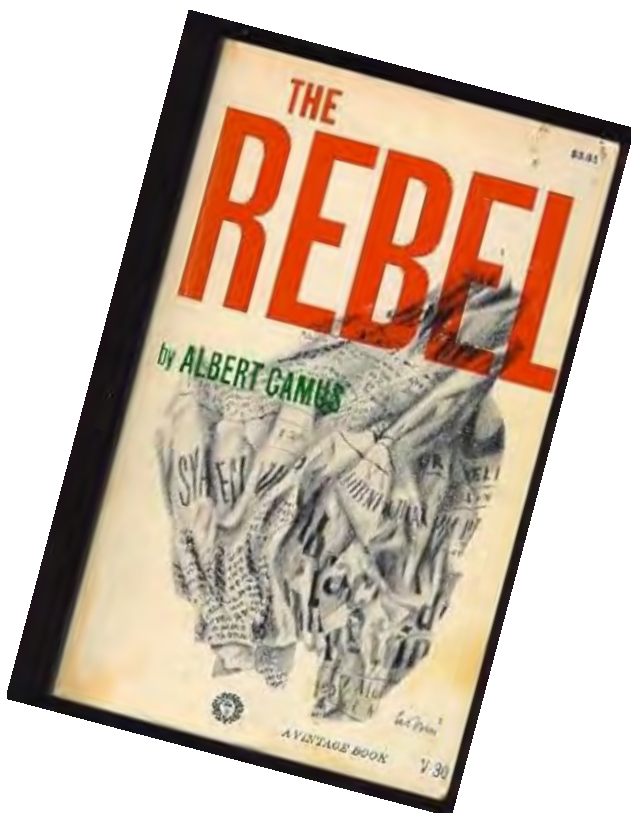

"The Rebel" by Albert Camus is a profound philosophical work that explores the concept of rebellion and its implications for humanity. Camus delves into the nature of rebellion and its role in the human condition, investigating both historical and contemporary instances of rebellion. The book is divided into five parts, each addressing different aspects of rebellion, from metaphysical rebellion to historical and artistic rebellion.

Camus begins by defining rebellion as a fundamental act of defiance against oppression and an assertion of one's own humanity. Rebellion, according to Camus, is a reaction to a sense of injustice and a demand for recognition and respect. He differentiates between rebellion and revolution, emphasising that rebellion is primarily an individual act rooted in moral outrage, while revolution seeks to overthrow an existing order to establish a new one. Camus views rebellion as a fundamental assertion of one's humanity against perceived injustice. It originates from moral outrage and a desire for dignity, distinguishing it from revolution. Rebellion questions existing values while demanding recognition, often grappling with the absurdity of existence.

Camus explores the role of art and literature in rebellion, highlighting how creative expression can challenge societal norms and provoke thought. He discusses the works of authors like Fyodor Dostoevsky, who grappled with themes of existentialism, freedom, and rebellion in their writings.

Self discovery is a simultaneous act of rebellion and revolution and no one should be able to take that away from you.

Towards Tomorrow

PERSONALITY DEVELOPMENT LAB

Personality development in schools is a crucial aspect of education that goes beyond academic learning.

It involves nurturing various elements of a child's character, social skills, and emotional intelligence. Students learn etiquette, protocol and skills to help them face any social situation with confidence. They also improve their communication, interpersonal, leadership, and technical skills.

Primary schooling years are the most important years for children. These are the times when children will pick up habits, develop an attitude, and build a personality. So, teaching them the right habits, etiquette, and values at this age becomes essential.

In keeping with this belief, Delhi Public School inaugurated a specific lab for Personality Development (PD) on 5th July, 2024 to significantly impact students' personalities, preparing them to face life's challenges with confidence and integrity.
